Cliff Chai is a CFA Charterholder and Chartered Global Management Accountant (CIMA) and has more than 20 years of industry experience spanning the construction, healthcare, finance and technology sectors.

Until earlier this year, he spent more than 3.5 years at a Health Tech company as its CFO, where in addition to managing the day-to-day finance functions, he was also instrumental in leading multiple rounds of successful fund-raising efforts.

Prior to that, he spent a total of more than 12 years in corporate finance advisory and consultancy, including with the investment banking division of OCBC Bank and then with a boutique corporate advisory outfit, during which he successfully completed many M&A and fundraising transactions, both for private and listed companies.

Cliff started his career as a civil engineer on a scholarship bond before moving on to complete a stint in hospital management and then transiting successfully into the finance sector in 2006. He holds an Honours degree in civil engineering from the National University of Singapore.
